

Ruth Ellis Center

Quarterly Community Trainings

For anyone interested in learning more about the Ruth Ellis Center, volunteering at the Ruth Ellis Center, or learning more about the following topics:

- Tours/orientation to our space: Learn about our programs and opportunities
- The Ruth Ellis Center principles of work: Harm reduction, trauma informed care, transformative justice and positive youth development
- Ruth Ellis Realness: LGBTQ 101 and social identity
- Family Work: Introduction to working with LGBTQ youth and their caregivers
- Darkness to Light: A child sexual abuse prevention model

The trainings will take place at our center at 77 Victor Street Highland Park, MI 48203:

Friday, January 18th, 2019

Friday and Saturday, April 26th and 27th, 2019

Friday, July 19th, 2019

Friday and Saturday, October 25th and 26th, 2019

The training runs from 9:00am to 5:00pm. The actual training time depends on the sessions individuals choose. Please visit link below to register.

A registration link can be found on our website or via the link below:

<https://forms.gle/jvJce4oQYE3DbESr8>

Contact Ruth Ellis Center at:

313-252-1950 (office phone)

313-865-3372 (office fax)

training@ruthelliscenter.org

www.ruthelliscenter.org

